Marriage Minute:

Do you have enough joy? Very few people would say, “I have enough joy in my life and in my marriage.” If you want more joy, Jesus gives us the path to follow in this week’s Gospel. Laying down our life for our spouse is the simple, albeit difficult path to unbridled joy. Many of us would “die” for our spouse if it literally meant surrendering our life so our spouse could live, but we have a much more difficult time living for our spouse and surrendering our will day in and day out in small things like:

- Listening to our spouse with full attention.
- Offering an encouraging word instead of criticism
- Turning off the TV and having a conversation.

ST. BERNARD

There will be a 5 pm Mass, Sunday, May 6:

Why: Because only approximately one in five young people remain in the Church; let’s start and try to fix this outcome.

Mass Difference: Incorporate videos into the homily and after Mass (with open discussion); first videos (from YouTube): “Why I hate religion, but love Jesus” & “Bishop Barron on ‘Why I Hate religion, But Love Jesus’”

Simple meal provided afterwards.

The Mass next Wednesday, May 9, will be at 6:30 pm because of the all school Mass for the religious education children. This is the last religion class for the school year.
